

Michael Hardy, P.E. P.G. WRS

Michael Hardy began his career as a hydrogeologist and water resource engineer for an in situ lithium mining operation in Silver Peak Nevada. While working for the mine, Michael's responsibilities included the managed an extensive well field, groundwater exploration programs, production drilling programs, and water rights management.

For the past 15 years, Michael has been the Water Resource Project Manager for Lumos & Associates Inc. in the Reno Office. Michael's areas of expertise include groundwater exploration and development, aquifer characterization, well field analysis, pump design, distribution, and water rights. Michael is currently a board member for the Nevada Water Resource Association (NWRA) as well as past President and Treasurer for NWRA.